Expansion Board) which has been a corporate body constituted under the British Indian Act to administer the provisions of the Act, has been functioning not only for the benefit of the British Indian planters but also for the planters in the State. The Committee though not registered in the State, has had its fund recognised under the British Indian Provident Funds Act of 1925. The provisions of the Mysore Act may perhaps be extended to the fund as requested.

Submitted for orders.

Gen 1096

The request of the Secretary Indian Coffee Market Expansion Board is that the provisions of the Mysore Provident Fund Regulation may be extended to the Indian Coffee Cess Committee Provident fund. It is stated that the Indian Provident Fund Act has already been applied to the Fund. But that as the similar protection has not been extended to other Funds in the State, there are certain disabilities difficulties. In the circumstances explained by the Secy: the request may be granted.

The Provident Fund rules are for perusal:

4) The provisions of the Mysore Provident Fund Act, may, under sec 6 of the Act, be extended to the Indian Coffee Cess Committee Provident Fund. Under sec 6, an Act may be extended to the benefit of employees "in any Company registered according to law." It must be remembered that the words "registered are according to law", & not "registered according to law in force in Mysore." ~~Many companies are registered according to the laws in British India, their companies are established & have branches in Mysore, & must be registered again in Mysore.~~ Under the Mysore Companies Act, a Foreign Company if doing business in Mysore, is recognized, without being again registered in Mysore, but it has to conform to the terms of sec 277 of the said Act.

So we must see that the Indian Coffee Cess Company is not registered in Mysore, is no ground for not extending the provisions of the Provident Fund Act to the said company.

INDIAN COFFEE MARKET EXPANSION BOARD

BANGALORE

Dated May 28, 1941.

From

M. J. Simon, Esq.,
Secretary, Indian Coffee Market Expansion Board.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Subject:- Extension of the provisions of the Mysore Provident Funds Regulation, 1916, to the Indian Coffee Cess Committee Provident Fund.

Sir,

I have the honour to enclose a copy of the Indian Coffee Cess Committee Provident Fund Rules and to request that the provisions of the Mysore Provident Funds Regulation, 1916, may kindly be extended to the Indian Coffee Cess Committee Provident Fund.

2. The provisions of the Indian Provident Funds Act (XIX of 1925) have already been applied to this Provident Fund (vide enclosed copy of Government of India Notifications No.460(2)-A.Tr. (I.E.R.) and No.460(2)-B.Tr.(I.E.R.) dated the 26th June 1927 in the Commerce Department). In the absence of a similar protection extended to this Provident Fund under the Mysore Regulation referred to, deposits in this Fund which is held in the State, are liable to be attached under a decree or order of a Court of Justice of the State. Also, rebate of income-tax on a member's subscriptions to this Provident Fund has been disallowed by the Special Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax, Bangalore.

3. This Provident Fund is administered by Rajamantrapravina N. Madhava Rau, the present Chairman of the Board, and Mr. M. J.

Simon, its Secretary. The accounts of the fund are kept at the offices of the Board in Asiatic Buildings, Kempegowda Road, Bangalore City, and the fund in a Post Office Savings Bank account.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Secretary,
Indian Coffee Market Expansion Board.

3. The Fund shall be deemed to have been constituted and established as from the 1st day of October, 1937. The Fund shall consist of :—

(1) subscriptions and contributions which are to be carried to the Fund in accordance with these Rules,

(2) such additions to the Fund as the Committee may at any time, and from time to time decide to make, and

(3) the income of the Fund from loans, deposits and investments.

4. The Fund shall be vested in and managed by the Committee, and these Rules shall be interpreted by the Committee whose decision shall be final and binding upon the members.

5. (1) These Rules shall apply to every servant of the Committee except such servants as the Committee may in their discretion decide not to admit thereto:

PROVIDED that these Rules shall not apply to any such servant between whom and the Committee an agreement subsists in respect of a provident fund other than the agreement providing for an application to him of these rules, and, in the case of an agreement so providing, shall apply subject to the terms of such agreement.

(2) Every servant of the Committee to whom these Rules apply shall be a subscriber to the Fund.

Nomination.

6. (1) The Secretary shall, as soon as may be, require every subscriber to make a nomination conferring the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund in the event of his death before the amount standing to the credit has become payable, or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.

(2) A subscriber who, at the time of joining the Fund, has a family shall send to the Secretary a nomination in the Form set forth in the First Schedule in favour of one or more members of his family.

(3) A subscriber who has no family may similarly nominate a person or persons in the Form set forth in the Second Schedule :

PROVIDED that a nomination made under this sub-rule shall be deemed to have been duly made in accordance with these rules only for so long as the subscriber has no family.

(4) If a subscriber at any time acquires a family, he shall send to the Secretary a nomination as provided in sub-rule (2) and, if he has under sub-rule (3) nominated any person other than a member of his family, he shall formally cancel the previous nomination.

(5) A subscriber may in his nomination distribute the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund amongst his nominees at his own discretion.

(6) A nomination may be cancelled by a subscriber if replaced by any nomination which is permitted to be made under this rule.

(7) A nomination shall take effect to the extent that it is valid on the date on which it is received by the Secretary.

(8) On the death of a nominee, a subscriber shall make a fresh nomination.

Subscribers' Accounts.

7. An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber, in which shall be credited—

(i) the subscriber's subscriptions;

(ii) contributions made under rule 11 by the Committee to his account;

(iii) interest, as provided by rule 12, on subscriptions; and

(iv) interest, as provided by rule 12, on contributions.

8. (1) Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund when on duty.

(2) A subscriber may, at his option, not subscribe during leave.

(3) The subscriber shall intimate his election not to subscribe during leave by a written communication to the Secretary before he goes on leave. Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscribe.

The option of a subscriber intimated under this sub-rule shall be final.

9. (1) The amount of subscription to the Fund shall be at a rate not less than 1/16th (i.e., one anna in the rupee), and not more than 1/8th (i.e., 2 annas in the rupee), of the monthly emoluments of the subscriber :

PROVIDED that in the case of a subscriber employed for a term of years under a specific agreement, the rate shall be such rate not exceeding 1/16th of his monthly emoluments as may be provided in the agreement.

PROVIDED that if a subscriber is on duty for a part of a month and on leave for the remainder of that month, and if he has elected not to subscribe during leave, the amount of subscription payable shall be proportionate to the number of days spent on duty in the month.

(2) The amount of subscription payable under sub-rule (1) shall be calculated to the nearest whole anna, 6 pies and more counting as the next higher anna.

Realisation of Subscriptions.

10. The Committee shall have power to deduct from the emoluments of any subscriber the subscription due from him and the principal and interest on the advance, if any, made to him from the Fund.

Contribution by the Committee.

11. (1) The Committee shall on the 31st March of each year make a contribution to the account of each subscriber :

PROVIDED that if the subscriber quits the service or dies during the year, contribution shall be credited to his account for the period between the close of the preceding year and the date of the casualty.

(2) The contribution shall be equal to 1/16th of the subscriber's emoluments drawn on duty, or his leave salary drawn during leave he elected to subscribe.

(3) The amount of contribution payable under sub-rule (2) shall be calculated to the nearest whole anna, 6 pies and more counting as the next higher anna.

Interest.

12. (1) The Committee shall pay to the credit of the account of the subscriber interest at such rate, not below the current rate of interest on Post Office Savings Bank Deposits, as the Committee may from time to time prescribe on the amount at his credit in the Fund.

(2) Interest shall be credited with effect from the 31st March of each year in the following manner :—

(i) On the amount at the credit of a subscriber on the 31st March of the preceding year, less any sums withdrawn during the current year :
— interest for twelve months ;

(ii) On sums withdrawn during the current year :
— interest from the 1st April up to the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal ;

(iii) On all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the 31st March of the preceding year :
— interest from the date of deposit up to the 31st March of the current year ; and

(iv) The total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest whole anna, 6 pies and more counting as the next higher anna :

PROVIDED that when the amount standing at the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest shall thereupon be credited under this sub-rule in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of deposit, as the case may be, up to the date on which the amount standing at the credit of the subscriber became payable.

(3) For the purposes of this rule the date of deposit shall, in the case of recoveries from emoluments, be deemed to be the first day of the month in which they are recovered.

Advances from the Fund.

13. (1) A temporary advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the discretion of the Committee, who may delegate their power in this respect to the Chairman, Vice-Chairman or the Secretary of the Committee.

(2) A temporary advance may be granted by the authority specified in sub-rule (1), subject to the following conditions :—

(a) the subscriber shall satisfy that authority of the necessity for the advance;

(b) that authority shall record in writing its reasons for granting the advance; and

(c) the advance shall not, save in exceptional cases, for reasons to be recorded in writing by that authority, exceed three months' emoluments and shall, in no case, exceed the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund at the time when the advance is granted :

PROVIDED that if the reason is of a confidential nature, it may be communicated to the Secretary personally and/or confidentially.

14. An advance shall not be granted under rule 13 until after the final repayment of the previous advance together with the interest thereon.

15. (1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such number of equal monthly instalments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but such number shall not be less than twelve unless the subscriber so elects, or in any case more than twenty-four. A subscriber may, at his option, make repayment in a smaller number of instalments than that prescribed. Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees.

(2) Recovery shall be made in the manner provided in rule 10, and shall commence from the first occasion after the advance is made on which the subscriber draws emoluments, other than the leave salary for a full month. Recovery shall not be made, except with the subscriber's consent, while he is on leave and may be postponed by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of an advance of pay granted to the subscriber.

(3) (a) After the principal of the advance has been fully repaid, interest shall be paid thereon at the rate of one-fifth per cent. of the principal for each month or broken portion of a month during the period between the drawal and complete repayment of the principal.

(b) Interest shall ordinarily be recovered in one instalment in the month after complete repayment of the principal; but, if the period referred to in clause (a) exceeds twenty months, interest may, if the subscriber so desires, be recovered in two equal monthly instalments. The method of recovery shall be that provided in sub-rule (2). Payment shall be rounded to the nearest anna in the manner provided in sub-rule (2) of rule 9.

(4) Recoveries made under this rule shall be credited, as they are made, to the account of the subscriber in the Fund.

Circumstances in which accumulations are payable.

16. When a subscriber quits the service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall, subject to any deduction under rule 18, become payable to him.

17. Subject to any deduction under rule 18, on the death of a bscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable, where the amount has become payable, before payment has been ade;

(i) when the subscriber leaves a family -

(a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of rule 6 in favour of a member or members of his family subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

(b) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any persons other than a member or members of his family become payable to the members of his family in equal shares:

PROVIDED that no share shall be payable to—

(1) sons who have attained legal majority;

(2) sons of a deceased son who have attained legal majority;

(3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;

(4) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive;

if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4):

PROVIDED also that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso.

Note. — Any sum payable under these rules to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such member under sub-section (2), of section 3 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

(ii) When the subscriber leaves no family, if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 6 in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

Note 1. — When a nominee is a dependent of the subscriber as defined in clause (c) of section 2 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

Note 2. — When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 6 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the relevent provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925, are applicable to the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

Deductions.

18. Subject to the condition that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by the Committee with interest thereon credited under rule 11, before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Committee may direct the deduction therefrom and payment to the Committee of —

(a) any amount, if a subscriber has been dismissed from the service for grave misconduct;

(b) any amount, if a subscriber resigns his employment under the Committee within five years of the commencement thereof, otherwise than by reason of superannuation or a declaration of competent medical authority that he is unfit for further service;

(c) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to the Committee.

Payment.

19. (1) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund, or the balance thereof after any deduction under rule 18, becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, after satisfying himself, when no such deduction has been directed under that rule, that no deduction is to be made, to make payment as provided in section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

(2) If the person to whom, under these rules, any amount is to be paid is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912, the payment will be made to such a manager, and not to the lunatic.

(3) Any person who desires to claim payment under this rule shall send a written application in that behalf to the Secretary.

Procedure.

20. (1) All sums paid into and from the Fund under these rules shall be accounted for in the books of the Committee in an account named "The Indian Coffee Cess Committee Provident Fund Account."

(2) Such accounts shall be examined and audited annually by the auditors appointed under Section 10 (2) of the Act.

(3) All expenses of the Fund shall be met by the Committee from the income of the Fund, as the Committee may direct.

(4) The custody and disbursal of the Fund shall be regulated by Rule 17 of the Indian Coffee Cess Rules, 1935, exactly in the same manner as Coffee Cess funds.

21. (1) As soon as possible after the 31st March of each year the Secretary shall send to each subscriber his pass book or a statement of his account in the Fund, showing the opening balance as on the 1st April of the year, the total amount credited or debited during the year, the total amount of interest credited as on the 31st March of the year and the closing balance on that date. The Secretary shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber—

(a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made under rule 6;

(b) has acquired a family (in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of a member of his family under sub-rule 2 of rule 5).

(2) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of their pass books or the annual statements and errors should be brought to the notice of the Secretary within one month from the date of receipt of the pass book or the statement.

22. Every subscriber shall sign an agreement in the third schedule annexed to these rules, agreeing to abide and be bound by these rules.

23. (1) The Fund may be wound up—

(a) If the Committee be dissolved by notification under Section 11 of the Indian Coffee Cess Act, 1935; or
